India Appeals to U.S. for War Weapons

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, Ind. AP — India turned to the United States today for weapons to fight the Communist Chinese and was assured they would be sent soon.

Prime Minister Nehru asked U.S. Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith for the weapons and an American Embassy spokesman said the arms are coming.

Almost simultaneously an Indian announcement said the Chinese had advanced on the western end of the fighting front.

The spokesman estimated between 2,000 and 2,500 Indian soldiers are dead or missing since the Chinese launched their offensive Oct. 20 and added the Chinese are believed to have suffered much heavier losses.

Reinforcements were being rushed to Se Pass to try to head off at least one 10,000 man Chinese division moving from the key northeast border town of Towang last week.

Despite setbacks such as the loss of Demchok India refused offers of mediation of the undeclared war with China.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said "no self respecting country and certainly not India with her love of freedom, can submit to Chinese aggression, whatever may be the consequences, nor can India allow China's occupation of Indian territory to be used as a bargaining counter for dictating to India a settlement of differences regarding the boundary on China's terms."

March of Dimes Poster Boy

NEW YORK (AP) — Five-year-old Jimmy Boggess of Coy, Ark., was named Sunday as "March of Dimes Boy for 1963."

An operation was performed on Jimmy when he was five days old to correct an "open spine." He now he walks with the aid of a pelvic band, full leg braces and crutches.

The National Foundation, which formerly concentrated on defeating infantile paralysis, now emphasizes patient care and research on birth defects.

Each year it selects a "March of Dimes" child whose picture appears on posters asking for funds.

Jimmy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boggess. His father manages a 1,500-acre soybean and cotton farm.

Kennedy Sets Up Committee to Negotiate

WASHINGTON AP — President Kennedy set up a special three-man committee today to handle negotiations looking toward an end to the Cuban crisis.

Kennedy designated John J. McCloy, whom he previously had appointed special assistant to U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson during the period of the Cuban emergency, as chairman of the group.

The other members are Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell L. Gilpatric.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger described the group as "a coordinating committee to bring time and attention to the matters involved in the conclusion of the Cuban crisis."

He said the three were to report directly to the President but act under the supervision of the three Secretaries of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, and Stevenson.

Ball and Gilpatric left for New York after attending the daily meeting of the executive committee of the National Security Council this morning. McCloy already was in New York.

Salinger said the coordinating committee would function in New York.

The press secretary said it would be concerned with "implementing the letters of President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev."

In these letters, exchanged over the weekend, Soviet Premier Khrushchev pledged dismantling of Soviet bases in Cuba and a halt to the delivery of offensive weapons to the Castro regime in return for an end to the U.S. blockade and a no-invasion pledge.

Khrushchev has dispatched Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov to the United Nations to work with Acting Secretary General U. Thant in dealing with the many details involved in a settlement.

Salinger said he had no information as to whether McCloy, Ball and Gilpatric would accompany U. Thant to Havana Tuesday to meet with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro and devise methods of confirming that the Soviets offensive weapons are removed.

The National Security Council's executive committee met for an hour today and will continue this for the time being, Salinger said.

Says Census Report Was Not at Fault

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Census Bureau admitted Sunday that Dean Witter and Co. used bureau figures in a published projection of Arkansas' population but disclaimed fault.

Dr. Conrad Tauerberg, deputy director of the Census Bureau said the company chose to use only one set of figures in a prospectus that aroused a wave of indignation in Arkansas.

The figures estimated Arkansas would lose almost 20 per cent of its population in the next 18 years while surrounding states would gain.

The figures Witter used were compiled on the basis that Arkansas' birth rate of 1955-57 would remain constant through 1970 and 1980, Tauerberg said.

The company got the figures from the Select Senate Committee on National Water Resources. The committee published them in March 1960 in a report entitled "Water resources activities in the United States—population projections and economic assumptions."

'Teahouse' Rare Treat in Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Color television, to which NBC almost alone is dedicated, doesn't always add much to one's enjoyment or appreciation of a program.

Baseball and football games are not particularly improved, although the viewer gets a chance to speculate on the condition of the grass in the playing fields.

NBC's "Teahouse of the August Moon," on Friday night, was a very special treat for those of us lucky enough to see it on a color set. It was very beautiful.

The Oriental settings and costumes were as delicately blended as a rare tea and just as refreshing. But the pleasant little comedy itself, written about American occupation of Okinawa after World War II, was no more than a pleasant, relaxing 90 minutes.

The story concerns a nice young captain, played by John Forsythe, assigned to put a small village back on its economic feet. Aided by a native interpreter — David Wayne in a marvelous make-up — and a geisha (Miyoshi Umeki) presented to him by a friendly villager, Forsythe does the job.

The plot revolves around the desire of the townfolk to build a teahouse rather than the school the Americans insist the town needs. As a hit Broadway play nine years ago, it was a leisurely, charming story, largely because there was plenty of time to develop the characters. But in order to accommodate the tyrannical cock of television, a full-length play had to be chopped down to a little more than an hour—that 90 minutes is misleading because it includes commercials, station breaks, opening and closing credits.

What got chopped, obviously, were the characterizations. We didn't get to know the principals well enough to care really what happened to them. But it sure was handsome to look at.

Handsome, but in a different way, was "The River Nile," down which we, courtesy of NBC again, traveled Sunday night. It was a travelogue, of course, but it was filmed in glowing color, given a narration that often read like poetry and was accompanied by a sensitive and sometimes witty musical score.

The journey started at the very source, in mountains of black Africa where the mighty river is a clear little stream, and ended 4,000 miles later in Alexandria where the river meets the sea. At every point along the way, the descriptions of flora and fauna were beautiful and interesting.

Just two programs like those make color worthwhile. Recommended tonight "The Lucy Show," CBS, 8:30-9.

Texas Tied, Hogs, Alabama Post Victories

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama, Northwestern and Southern California stood tree-top tall today as the unchallenged giants of the gridiron following a weekend in which three members of the nation's major college football elite ran into timber—trimming buzz-saws.

Texas, holder of the No. 1 ranking for two weeks, fell from a list of unbeaten and untied teams as did another member of the top ten in The Associated Press poll—Wisconsin—on a Saturday program that left only eight major teams with perfect records.

Texas, No. 1, was defeated by winless Rice on a late pass from Randall Kerbow to Ron Graham and Kerbow's conversion, Waco, No. 5, dropped a 14-7 decision to Ohio State's bounce-back Buckeyes and Washington, No. 8, was tied by Oregon 21-21.

Alabama's Crimson Tide (-0-) continued to roll, pushing past Tulsa 35-13. Northwestern's Big Ten leaders 5-0 smashed once mighty Notre Dame 35-6, and Southern Cal (5-0) shipped Illinois 28-1. The triumvirate was ranked 2-3-4 last week.

Five other teams remain undefeated and untied—Mississippi (5-0), Auburn (5-0), Nebraska (-0-), Dartmouth (5-0) and Ohio University (-0-). While four teams have been tied but not beaten. On that list are Texas 5-0-1, Washington (4-0-2), Louisiana State (5-0-1), Missouri (5-0-1), and Bowling Green (-0-).

While Bama, Northwestern and USC were parading their talents, a host of others were bucking for recognition among the elite.

LSU and Mississippi, Nos. 7 and 8, scored easily, the Tigers manhandling Florida 23-0 and Ole Miss clobbering Vanderbilt 35-0. Ninth-rated Arkansas walloped Hardin-Simmons 49-7, and No. 10 Michigan State defeated Indiana 28-8.

Auburn, clamoring for a spot in the top ten, used a last period field goal by Woody Woodall for record of seven touchdown passes. His efforts propelled the Giants to a resounding 49-34 victory over the previously unbeaten 'Skins.

The victory left New York with a 5-2 mark as the NFL season crossed the halfway point, but the Giants were still in second place in the Eastern Conference, behind Washington by only 8 percentage points. The Redskins have won four, lost one and have a pair of ties. Ties do not count in the final percentages.

The Giants, with Tittle's precision performances each week giving them added momentum, have the schedule on their side. Washington still must play New York again, has two games with the still-tough Pittsburgh Steelers, and one each with the Cleveland Browns, Baltimore Colts, Philadelphia Eagles and Dallas Cowboys. All but Philadelphia are rough and tumble clubs.

The Browns stayed in the Eastern Conference race by walloping Pittsburgh 41-14. Brown quarterback Jim Ninowski suffered a separated shoulder and may be out for four weeks. Green Bay kept its unbeaten record atop the Western Conference with a 17-victory over Baltimore. Detroit took over second place by edging the Chicago Bears, 11-3.

In other NFL games, the St. Louis Cardinals upset the Cowboys 28-24, Minnesota's Vikings surprised Philadelphia 31-21 and the Los Angeles Rams 1-6 upset the San Francisco 49ers (3-4) 28-14.

Tittle, in his last year of pro football before retiring to devote full time to his San Francisco insurance business, gave the Redskins a lesson they'll never forget. He completed 27 of 39 passes for 595 yards and hit end Joe Walton for three touchdowns, halfback Joe Morrison for two and nailed Del Shofner and Frank Gifford for one each.

Shofner, still suffering the effects of a shoulder separation incurred two weeks ago, was his chief target. He caught 11 passes for 29 yards.

The Packers (7-0) also relied on their defense, which halted the Colts eight times in Green Bay territory. Packer fullback Jim Taylor broke open the game with a 37-yard touchdown run following a pass interception by linebacker Ray Nitschke. Paul Hornung once again missed playing for the Packers because of an injured knee, but quarterback Bart Starr's passing, including a TD toss to McGee, was enough to beat the Colts (3-4). Dick Butts' two field goals were all Baltimore could muster.

The Mound Builders Museum at Wilson is said to be the most valued such collection in existence, and represents more than half a century of archeological delving.

Reds Blast Whites, Give Blues Title

By JOE PURVIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A surging Red team insured the league championship for the Blues by downing the Whites 19 to 12 last week. The scrappy Reds, led by signal caller Jerry Don McWilliams, made every White effort futile.

After a see-saw first period, McWilliams' 16 yard run sparked the Red drive. Three plays later, he punched over from the two. Ken Koen got the PAT. With seconds remaining, Mark Pierce rambled 24 yards to the three, the clock ended the drive. The Red led 7-0.

The Whites stormed back as Pierce went 37 yards to the Red 13. Rowe, then lugged it to the one where Pierce rammed it over, the point try failed and the third period ended 13-6 for the Reds.

In the final period the Whites
